

$100,000 OF YOUR MONEY Mr. Taxpayer

HAS BEEN PAID TO THE PRESENT CONGRESSMAN FROM THE EIGHTH DISTRICT, IN SALARIES AND OTHER PERQUISITES OF OFFICE DURING THE TEN OR SO YEARS HE HAS HELD THE JOB.

What Has He Given You In Return For It?

- ❑ Don't you think you've paid him about as much as one officeholder deserves?
- ❑ Don't you think he's had the office about as long as one man should? You haven't given him a deed to it or a mortgage on it, you know; yet he appears to think you have, and that it's a serious offense for any one to oppose him.
- ❑ You have made him a RICH MAN with that $100,000 of your money. Does he want you to make him a MILLIONAIRE before he lets go? Why not give a poor man with a family, a chance NOW?
- ❑ Let's send a man to Congress from the Old 8th who looks at big public questions as does Woodrow Wilson, and who will never desert the President and the other Democratic Congressmen from Kentucky and vote alongside of John Langley and CALEB POWERS, the two Republicans from Kentucky.
- ❑ Helm claims to be a friend of Wilson and is trying to be re-elected on that argument. He says not to "swap" horses in the middle of the stream.
- ❑ But you farmers know it's a splendid idea to swap a balky horse whenever you get a chance—and now's your chance, Mr. Democratic Voter to trade off the Congressman who balked when Woodrow Wilson asked him to vote for the Panama Canal Toll bill and then had the effrontery to cast the vote of the Eighth Congressional District, along with the vote of Caleb Powers.
- ❑ Here's how the Kentucky Congressmen voted on the bill the President wanted; who showed themselves his friends? :

FOR THE PRESIDENT:

Barkley	Democrat
Cantrill	Democrat
Fields	Democrat
Johnson	Democrat
Rouse	Democrat
Sherley	Democrat
Stanley	Democrat
Thomas	Democrat

(See Congressional Record, Pages 6088-89 for verification of the abovevote, which Mr. Helm does not and cannot truthfully deny.)

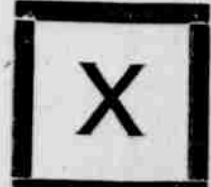

❑ Just look at that, you stalwart old "yellow-dog" Democrat! How does that set with you? It wasn't Helm's vote (not by a jugful; though he seems to think it his own individual property), no sir, you sent him to Washington to represent you; to vote your sentiments; to carry out your wishes. Did he do it? If you had been there would you have voted along with Caleb Powers or would you have voted for what Woodrow Wilson and every other Democratic Congressman from Kentucky thought best?

❑ So the question is: Do you want a man in Congress to represent you who looks at these big public questions, and votes on them, as Woodrow Wilson or as Caleb Powers?

❑ Helm has shown where he stands. If you agree with him, you ought to vote for him Saturday, August 5th. If you are for Woodrow Wilson all the time and against Caleb Powers and everyone who opposes Wilson you ought to cast your vote on August 5th, like this:

FOR CONGRESS

and then you will have the satisfaction of knowing that a man will represent you in Congress who will stand by Woodrow Wilson all the time.

❑ Think this over carefully, Mr. Democrat, before you go to the polls. The Congressional Record shows that Helm deserted the President exactly as stated above. Why give him a chance to so flagrantly misrepresent the magnificent and loyal Democracy of the Eighth District again?

HOGS TO EXPERIMENT ON

Shipped by T. W. Jones to Purdue University in Indiana.

T. W. Jones, proprietor of the Stanford Stock Yards, is not only shipping stock and hogs to the Cincinnati and Louisville markets, but last week was called upon to furnish a couple of loads of hogs to be used for experimental purposes in Indiana. He shipped a load of stock, hogs to Purdue University at Lafayette, Indiana, and another load to the Indiana Serum Company at the same place. The price received was not made public, but is understood to have been slightly in excess of the market price for young hogs, as these were selected and sent for a special purpose.

Farm and Stock News

Paul Finch, of Drakes Creek Stock Farm, in the East End, sold to the East Arkansas Demonstrating Farm, a five-year-old Duroc sow for $200.

Wm. Campbell, of Midway, sold 300 sheep to parties in Roan county, Tenn., to be delivered in August, at $7, and bought one car load of 135 sheep in Maggs county, Tenn., at $7.

H. S. Caywood, of Bourbon, bought 75 head of export cattle from M. Hume Payne, of near Stony Point, Saturday, at $9 per hundred pounds. The cattle averaged 1,114 pounds each.

John M. Cress, who is making a specialty of the black Aberdeen-Angus cattle at his farm near Precherville, sold his last bull calves the past week. He sold a grade calf to A. T. Nunnally for $65 and a thoroughbred, four months old to Dr. J. G. Carpenter for $100.

Dr. C. M. Thompson, mayor of King's Mountain, who was in town last week, says that he is preparing some ground to put in an acre or so of alfalfa next season. Dr. Thompson has had unusual success raising buckwheat in his section and believes that he can do equally as well with alfalfa.

SWEET TODDY BRINGS $350.

Sam J. Embry, who was in Mercer county last week, in connection with his great road mare, Sweet Toddy, his great road mare, Sweet Toddy, while at Harrodsburg to S. M. Burdett, of Marion county. Mr. Embry received $250 for the mare, and those who know her qualities say that she is well worth the money as she is one of the fastest green trotters seen around these parts in some time. Mr. Embry drove the mare home but will deliver her to her new owner this week.
